GLENDALE UNITES FOR ROCK & ROLL PAINT-A-THON

Call for Volunteers Underway

GLENDALE, Ariz. –Glendale employees will team with volunteers to refresh homes around Glendale with new paint as part of the City of Glendale's Rock & Roll Paint-A-Thon on Saturday, Oct. 25 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

This annual community effort makes a continuous positive impact on Glendale and engages more than 3,000 volunteers valley-wide during this hands-on neighborhood revitalization. Through an application process, several single family home owners unable to repair their homes due to age or physical impairments we able to submit for help as part of the Annual Rock & Roll Paint-A-Thon.

This program, which matches volunteers with those in need of assistance, helps maintain neighborhoods by painting homes of applicants who are ages 60 and older and/or have a permanent disability, limited financial resources, are or veterans and are unable to do the work themselves.

"Glendale is invested in the well-being of our community," said Acting Neighborhood Services Coordinator, Michelle Yates. "It is so humbling to see the volunteers that turn out each year to help us meet this demand to improve and help those in need within our city. It really is a rewarding experience!"

It is expected that teams of volunteers will sign up to paint more than 150 homes across the Valley. Last year more than 150 homes were painted during the one-day event, including homes in Glendale.

Only single-family, single-story, owner-occupied residences will be painted. Homes must be in sufficient condition that scraping and spot priming are the only preparations needed. All volunteers must be at least age 14 and volunteers younger than 18 must have signed parental permission slips.
